

Water Sampling for Private Landowners within WGCD

What water do we test? Domestic water, livestock water and irrigation water

Why Test your drinking/livestock water? To ensure water quality for human and livestock consumption.

Why test your irrigation water? To properly credit nutrients delivered to your crops from the irrigation water.

What does it cost me? Free for WGCD tax payers

How many samples can I take advantage of each calendar year? Each landowner may have 1 of each sample done per year.

The information obtained from these water tests are to be used for the landowner's personal information and to be used to make personal decisions based on the testing results. WGCD simply provides this service to better serve landowners in our area.
